

World Federation of Athletic Training and Therapy

Academic Institutions Committee

The Academic Institutions Committee (AIC) is the academic institutions networking arm of the WFATT.

The AIC exists to serve as a body of academic institutions representatives of the WFATT in the area of Athletic Training and Therapy academic programs. This may include collaborative networking, exchange programs, and research opportunities. It shall also be a resource for questions regarding academic institutions arising from the WFATT Executive Committee and from the WFATT's member organizations.

Composition

- Up to seven (7) members respecting geographical representation are appointed to a two year term with an option for renewal for an additional two years.
- A Chair is appointed by and from within the AIC.
- The AIC will maintain continuity by ensuring so far as is practicable that terms of office are staggered.
- Nominations for new members of the AIC shall be invited whenever a vacancy arises. Calls for nominations shall be made by the Executive Committee. Recommendations for appointment as AIC members shall be made by the AIC for formal ratification by the Executive Committee.
- Report to the Executive Committee at least twice per year and at the Annual Members' Meeting. They may be held in person, by telephone or electronically.

- At the discretion of Executive committee, the Chair shall be invited to participate in part or all of its formal meetings

The AIC will:

- Advise the executive Committee on programs and opportunities that will promote collaboration between member academic institutions
- Serve as a contact point for current and potential member academic institutions
- Facilitate, promote and contribute to communications vehicles as developed by the Marketing and promotions committee (twitter, facebook, Instagram, linkedin etc)
- Promote international discussions to foster international student and faculty exchange programs.
- Encourage academic institution participation in the Biennial World Congress.
- Subject to approval by the Executive Committee, the AIC may formulate rules and policies such that it may deem necessary for the effective discharge of its appointed duties.